

Caroline Fazekas
Rangeley
LD 1883

Having volunteered at The Gathering Place in Brunswick, ME I am familiar with how many people who are marginalized are suffering from illness with no care. Homelessness is so much worse when you are sick. Everyone should have basic healthcare so they have the strength to improve their situation. There are so many problems to solve (housing, food, social security) but giving healthcare as a right in Maine would go a long way to lifting people up and improving life here.