

Arthur Schroeder
Winter Harbor
LD 1971

Our state and local agencies are not branches of ICE. It is a breach of privacy for them to share information with the federal immigration authorities. These same agencies are operating beyond the law and constitutional restraints. I do not think we should be complicit in their actions.

Long-term, peaceful, individuals (which most of the undocumented are) deserve a pathway to citizenship, not some roundup reminiscent of other authoritarian regimes