

Shane Stephenson
Saco
LD 1823

The dispositions in criminal cases are often dismissed and the public is being put at risk due to a lack of accountability by the courts. Rumford PD shows this when they post the case data they receive. Crime is up despite what inaccurate reporting data says. I think there needs to be more transparency with what actually happens with criminal cases. The public deserves to see this information to ensure not only to see the cases but to also ensure equality.