

Anthony Bailey
Augusta
LD 555

Can you make child and family services for developmental disabled adults that can't take care of themselves with autism spectrum disorder no more adult protective services for developmental disabled adults just child and family services and child and family services can supervise the guardianship of adults and also help parents get their parental rights over their developmental disabled adult child and reunification adult children back to their parents and make it so separate child and family services would be for adult children with developmental disabilities and also make them supervising the guardianship of adults and also they can petition the court to help families get parental rights and responsibilities over their adult children and I cry when I get taken away from my father so I want child and family services to support my family and reunite me back with my father please pass this bill the way I need it make amendments to the bill