

Anthony Bailey
Auburn
LD 555

Can you create a separate child and family services for adult children with developmental disabilities and do reunification with special needs adult children with their parents and place them in children residential facilities or foster care for reunification services for special needs adult children and also help parents get parental rights over their special needs adult children and also help parents receive child support services for special needs adult children over 18 years old and give them back to parents to have parental rights and also give section 28 children services for special needs adult children please make it ought to pass as drafted and amended