

Emily Baisden
Brunswick
LD 1383

I do not believe our tax dollars should be used to fund human right violations. I urge that the state divests from the millions of dollars given to perpetrators or anyone assisting perpetrators of human rights violations. This should be an easy vote for anyone who doesn't want to be party to the horrors of an authoritarian police state that tortures and kills its people. Our tax dollars should be used to fund services that uplift the people who live here.