

Karalee Rochon
North Yarmouth
LD 2066

I support making the CCAP child care employment award because working at a quality center with high tuition rates, this grant allows teachers to bring their children to the center and Is one less stress to figure out. Working in the field and getting paid an ece salary while also having young children attending care is not a sustainable form of living, especially on a one income household.