

April Tardiff
Old Orchard Beach
LD 2066

I support making the CCAP child care employment award because when I was working within a Childcare Facility I also received the CCAP and that was honestly the only way I was able to compensate the lack of hourly pay given to new early educators. $14 dollars an hour was just enough to pay for my son to be in childcare while I was working. The CCAP was a payment that I was able to take home after paying for my sons care.