

Linda Skinner
South Portland
LD 2106

Immigration enforcement under the Trump regime indiscriminately targets immigrant communities without just cause. This constant fear creates a public health crisis that includes trauma, family separation, detention in inhumane conditions, and deportation to unknown and dangerous locations. All Maine residents should feel safe going about their daily routines—going to school, work, daycare, even walking or driving on public ways. No one living in Maine should feel endangered by just existing.