

Anne Schlitt
Bath
LD 2106

I fully support this act. Employees of schools, libraries, medical facilities, and other public institutions, and all people using those services, need to be protected from those who would demand compliance without a judicial warrant. Thank you for being proactive and reinforcing existing laws around the need for judicial review on these matters.