

Lisa Carlson
Falmouth
LD 2106

I am a Maine mother worried about government officials with guns at schools. It is not wise or safe to have armed officials attempting arrests and confrontations around children, and I am heartsick to think my child's classmates are afraid to go to school because they are scared of their parents or even themselves being detained.

School needs to be a sanctuary from the chaos of the outside world, not a hunting ground for ICE. Please protect our children.