

Karen Mauney
Gardiner
LD 2106

America is a country built on ideals. And those ideals include the idea that everyone is equal and have a right to live safely within a community. Harassing students in schools, children in daycares, patrons in libraries, or people in need of health care does not make anyone in the community safe. It makes them afraid and breaks the community. The random and violent acts of ICE have not made anyone safe from “violent illegal aliens”. It is making none of us safe.