

Elise Goplerud
Howland
LD 2106

As someone who works in Maine public schools frequently, I know that it has been more challenging than ever for students to feel safe at schools. We should not allow any unnecessary additional fear to interfere with these students ability or willingness to attend school. Schools should be impartial and safe. Politics do not belong in schools.