

Grace Von Allure
Gray
LD 785

The Wabanaki people deserve sovereignty and the right to protect the land sacred to them. Their local ecological knowledge is invaluable, and we cannot continue to treat them and their rights as lesser than, especially when their roots trace back at least 40,000 years.