

Lars Larson
Bar Harbor
LD 785

For the last 40 years, the Wabanaki Nations have been denied these rights afforded to ALL OTHER federally recognized tribes in the United States. These unjust restrictions have harmed the tribes, put the environment at risk, and led to years of legal disputes.

Maine considers itself a leader. But, in this, we have fallen behind.

I am writing to express my testimony in support of LD 785 to allow for self governance by the Wabanaki Nations