

Megan Griffith
Windham
LD 2212

As a school counselor who works with students in grades 9 and 10, it is so impactful to have an option to earn a college degree without the barrier of expense. My students come from a wide range of economic backgrounds, and should all have the opportunity to earn a college degree, regardless of cost - especially in their home state!