

Brianna Lueck
Sumner
LD 2226

Taxes are already high - I want the children to have the best education possible but the current allocations are stretching the wallet and interfering with other municipality priorities.

The careful review of this impact is of the utmost importance.