

Windsor
LD 2226

As a resident of the town of Windsor, just because property values are rising out of our control, this does not mean our salaries are rising too. How does funding our school by the means of property values make any logical sense? inflation is causing our property values to rise while our salaries remain the same. If federal funding for our schools keep getting cut, while our taxes keep rising, tell me How would this not be a burden to anyone?