

Crystal Robinson
Hope
LD 280

Thank you for accepting my testimony. I am strongly against increasing the debt service limit for Maine Schools. As a former teacher and a former and current school board member, I see no reason to increase our debt limits thereby increasing the "hidden" tax of inflation on our citizens. With proper planning and management, there is no reason to incur any debt.