#1 Scenic Railroad in the US

1. Conway Scenic Railroad's Notch Train, New Hampshire

New Hampshire's White Mountains region is one of the prettiest areas to see New England's fall colors. The Conway Scenic Railroad's Notch train excursion, departing from an 1874 train station in Mount Washington Valley, follows tracks dating to the 1870s on its climb into the region's dramatic mountains. Throughout the five-hour trip, the conductor provides narration as the train crosses historic bridges and passes sheer cliffs, gorges, waterways, and vast mountain vistas. Open-air and dome car seating are available, but the latter often sell out well in advance.

The Conway Scenic Railroad if offered a 99-year lease with payments based on a percentage of revenue for the Mountain Division will help Maine DOT to develop and implement a realistic plan to reopen and revitalize the Mountain Division from Portland to the New Hampshire boarder for tourist train and freight operations.

The Conway Scenic Railroad will operate all trains with no state subsidies.
