To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to express my support for Dr. Carrie Werner specifically, and for all naturopathic doctors in general here in Maine. I went to see Dr. Werner after I had undergone extensive bladder cancer treatments and felt completely weakened and inwardly out of balance. After several months of diagnosis, nutritional recommendations and supplements, I found myself enjoying increasing strength and sense of health. I strongly believe that well-trained naturopathic doctors should be authorized to give prescriptions when needed.

Sincerely,

David Sloan
