

CHAPTER 107-BMAINE INTERNATIONAL TRADE CENTER*§945. Establishment

The Maine International Trade Center, referred to in this chapter as the "center," is established to enhance the competitive advantage of state businesses desiring to compete in the international market. The center provides a source of leadership, coordination and a shared vision for international trade development in the State. The purpose of the center, through its cooperative public and private board, is to refine, revise and implement the State's international strategic plan by providing and enhancing services in coordination with the economic development activities of the private sector, community and regional agencies and State Government. [PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]

The center is a private nonprofit corporation with a public purpose and the exercise by the center of the powers conferred by this chapter is held to be an essential governmental function. [PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]

SECTION HISTORY

PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).

§945-A. Duties

The center shall provide a base level of services without regard to membership in the center and enhanced services as the center's board of directors may direct, to private entities, individuals, the State and to quasi-public and public entities. The center shall encourage and assist the growth of the State's international economic activities in the following ways. [PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]

1. Forum. The center shall provide a continuing forum for the exchange of expertise, ideas and innovations between the public and private sectors.
[PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]

2. Education. The center shall offer quality education and technical services to businesses in the State that compete or seek to compete in worldwide markets.
[PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]

3. Development of programs. The center shall act as a catalyst in the development and coordination of international programs.
[PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]

4. Public policy. The center shall underscore the importance of international trade as a priority of public policy and to enhance public appreciation of the relevance of the international economy.
[PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]

5. Information. The center shall provide information necessary to transact international business and to make effective decisions concerning international trade and policy.
[PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]

6. Infrastructure. The center shall support the development and availability of an overall infrastructure conducive to international business.
[PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]

7. Dissemination of programs. The center shall promote the development and dissemination of education, training and technical assistance programs appropriate for foreign countries.
[PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]

8. Market opportunities. The center shall identify market opportunities and potential contracts in foreign countries that match the technologies and expertise available in the State and coordinate and submit appropriate proposal responses.
[PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]

9. Data base. The center shall maintain an international commerce data base to assist in making program decisions.
[PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]

SECTION HISTORY

PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).

§945-B. Members of center

Members of the center are individuals and organizations that pay dues to the center or are state agencies as specified in subsection 1. Memberships may be set at different levels. Members shall elect 7 members to the board of directors of the center pursuant to section 945-C. [PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]

1. Members. Members are the private individuals, partnerships, firms, corporations, governmental entities and other organizations who pay dues to the center. For the purposes of this chapter, members may include, but are not limited to, municipal and county government, councils of government, local and area development corporations, regional planning commissions, development districts, state agencies, higher educational facilities, including the components of the University of Maine System, the Maine Maritime Academy, private colleges and postsecondary schools and community colleges, and other public or quasi-public entities. The following 7 public organizations are granted membership by virtue of the State's contribution to the organization and are exempt from dues requirements and each is entitled to designate one individual to exercise its voting right: the Department of Agriculture, Conservation and Forestry, the Office of Policy Innovation and the Future, the Finance Authority of Maine, the Department of Labor, the Department of Marine Resources, the Department of Economic and Community Development and the Department of Transportation.
[PL 2013, c. 405, Pt. D, §5 (AMD); PL 2021, c. 293, Pt. A, §52 (REV).]

2. Voting rights. All members have a vote in the affairs of the center as set forth in the bylaws of the center, except that when the member is an organization and not an individual the governing body of that organization shall designate the individual who is to exercise the voting right.
[PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]

§945-C. Board of directors and officers

The Board of Directors of the Maine International Trade Center, referred to in this chapter as the "board of directors," consists of 11 directors elected from the membership, 5 directors appointed by the Governor and the president of the center, serving in an ex officio capacity. Each director is entitled to one vote. Board members' terms must be staggered as determined in the bylaws of the center. [PL 2021, c. 46, §1 (AMD).]

The state representative of the United States Department of Commerce and the state representative of the United States Small Business Administration may serve as nonvoting ex officio directors. [PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]

1. Elected directors. The members shall elect 11 directors from among the center's dues-paying membership.

[PL 2021, c. 46, §2 (AMD).]

2. Governor-selected directors. The Governor shall select 5 directors, each of whom must have international business or professional experience.

[PL 2021, c. 46, §3 (AMD).]

3. Chair; vice-chair; treasurer. The board of directors shall elect the chair and the vice-chair of the board of directors and the treasurer of the center from among the directors.

[PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]

4. President. The International Trade Director at the Department of Economic and Community Development shall serve as the president of the center upon confirmation by a majority of the board of directors. Once every 2 years, the Governor shall submit the International Trade Director's name to the board of directors for reappointment. Reappointment is subject to confirmation by a majority of the board of directors. The president shall serve as an ex officio voting member of the board of directors.

[PL 2021, c. 46, §4 (AMD).]

5. Duties of president. The president shall:

A. Serve as the liaison between the board of directors and the center; [PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]

B. Manage the center's programs and services; [PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]

C. Ensure that the center's programs reflect the policy and management decisions as described in the strategic plan for the State concerning international trade; [PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]

D. Coordinate all services to continually meet the needs of the center as described in the strategic plan for the State; [PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]

E. Play a leadership role in coordinating, facilitating and helping to prioritize both the short-term and long-term recommendations of this strategic plan; [PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]

F. Serve as the State's diplomat, providing leadership in the area of international trade and advocating within the State and abroad on behalf of the State's international trade community; and [PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]

G. Perform such other duties as the board considers appropriate. [PL 1995, c. 648, §5 (NEW).]
