

§2110. Subpoenas for victim's records

A victim has the right to timely notice pursuant to section 2102, subsection 1, paragraph H and must be given an opportunity to be heard at any criminal hearing or criminal court proceeding concerning a subpoena issued to a person other than the victim for any record that implicates a privilege or a confidentiality or privacy protection for the benefit of the victim as described in Rule 17A(f) of the Maine Rules of Unified Criminal Procedure, including, but not limited to, the victim's medical records, mental health counseling or treatment records, educational records, electronic device content information and electronic device location information. For purposes of this paragraph, "electronic device content information" has the same meaning as in Title 16, chapter 3, subchapter 10 and "electronic device location information" has the same meaning as in Title 16, chapter 3, subchapter 11. [PL 2025, c. 695, §5 (NEW).]

SECTION HISTORY

PL 2025, c. 695, §5 (NEW).

The State of Maine claims a copyright in its codified statutes. If you intend to republish this material, we require that you include the following disclaimer in your publication:

All copyrights and other rights to statutory text are reserved by the State of Maine. The text included in this publication reflects changes made through the Second Regular Session of the 132nd Maine Legislature and is current through October 1, 2026. The text is subject to change without notice. It is a version that has not been officially certified by the Secretary of State. Refer to the Maine Revised Statutes Annotated and supplements for certified text.

The Office of the Revisor of Statutes also requests that you send us one copy of any statutory publication you may produce. Our goal is not to restrict publishing activity, but to keep track of who is publishing what, to identify any needless duplication and to preserve the State's copyright rights.

PLEASE NOTE: The Revisor's Office cannot perform research for or provide legal advice or interpretation of Maine law to the public. If you need legal assistance, please contact a qualified attorney.