

§2083. If records show multiple addresses of apparent owner

1. Most recently recorded address. Except as in subsection 2, if records of a holder reflect multiple addresses for an apparent owner and this State is the state of the most recently recorded address, this State may take custody of property presumed abandoned, whether located in this State or another state.

[PL 2019, c. 498, §22 (NEW).]

2. Next most recently recorded address. If it appears from records of the holder that the most recently recorded address of the apparent owner under subsection 1 is a temporary address and this State is the state of the next most recently recorded address that is not a temporary address, this State may take custody of the property presumed abandoned.

[PL 2019, c. 498, §22 (NEW).]
