

Wendell Caler
Resident

I would like to speak in favor of allowing aerial spraying of glyphosate for silver culture and forest management to be allowed. In some cases it may be the most practical due to remote location. Also with labor cost rising trying to do this work by manual labor on the ground would be cost prohibitive. I feel with proper guidelines it can be used.

Thank you
Wendell