

Mary Stuart
Canaan

I am in favor of this bill's passage. I have watched a logger friend and others struggle with Lymphoma from way too much exposure to Glysophate and other herbicides. My research on those chemicals has produced horrifying information. Maine should be leading the way in sequestering carbon in our forests, not spreading poison that kills everything that it randomly touches.