

Algis Vydas
Holden

I am against Aerial Spraying of any Synthetic Herbicides for the Purpose of Silviculture since it is difficult to control the drift of these chemicals and their long term effects on the ecosystem and humans are rarely fully known-just consider what happened with agent orange. I am a small wood lot owner in Holden and retired physician.