

Conny Hatch
Belfast

The State of Maine cannot allow our public lands to be leased out to the highest bidder. We are in a unprecedented climate crisis and unless we preserve and protect the environment that provides us all with the air we breathe and the water we drink, we undermine the well-being of entire planet and all beings who have the privilege to live here.