

Seth Bolduc
Whitefield

I strongly oppose the CMP corridor project. Not only does this project mar and disrupt Maine's wild areas, it creates economic incentive to do the same, on a far greater scale to the wild areas of northern Quebec. We are not isolated in this world and the changes we impose on the landscapes, fisheries and wildlife habitat both in Quebec and Maine have real, lasting and permanent effects on the world that we know and love.