

Todd Nichols
Cape Neddick

I oppose this bill as it is unnecessary for licensed applicators and dealers to report every sale and/or application of any pesticide under this proposed time frame. Licensed applicators and dealers already submit an annual summary of products sold and used. We all keep current records of application. If the general public has questions about applications performed they should ask the person/company directly. Having this database is a waste of everyone's time and serves no purpose.