

Noah Fishman
Belfast
LD 2013

PFAS contamination in Maine is completely devastating across the board; for those who farm, the communities who benefit from the farmers, and the younger generation who hope one day to become growers in Maine. If the state does not mitigate and repair the damage they have caused by allowing sludge to be spread on future farmland, then Maine stands to lose a generation of growers. Please support LD 2013 and the current and future Maine growers.