

Catelynn Hendrick
Brooksville
LD 2013

This is heartbreaking. Maine is a state beloved for its rich agriculture and we all need food. Without farmers, we don't survive or thrive. And we NEED to support farmers who have been impacted unjustly, their livelihoods, hopes, and dreams, by PFAS. Please support them.