

Amelia Tracy
Belfast
LD 2013

I moved to Belfast because of perennial cider bar. Because the future of agriculture is what will determine the future of humanity and many other beings we share this planet with.

How we respond to the PFAS crisis in 2020 can help determine how we will face climate change caused by systems of oppression. How will we actually survive?