

Jessica Vienneau
Maine state ambassador
LD 2013

This is VERY important to our communities that rely on farmers market foods to feed our families. People are getting sick and we are losing safe foods for our families to eat! It's unethical and very dangerous to hide or ignore stuff like this! A lot of people rely on farms for food and jobs! Please take this seriously and help prevent this from continuing!?!?