

Sohrab Boldaji
Old Town
LD 901

As a former farm apprentice, it is in my opinion that this bill is crucial for creating future farmers in Maine. The current system that exists to aid farmers rely solely on the apprentices, who are often young and have little to no incentive for getting the required paperwork done. This bill creates a meaningful way to support farmers in training the future farmers of Maine, and it is my opinion that it should be supported by all.