

Elizabeth Carson
South Portland
LD 1823

This is a terrible idea. It would annihilate these species. They are part of what makes our state special. And they have a right to live here. Clearly, sport hunters are using this issue to open hunting season to any time only for themselves. We need to address so many other important issues including poverty not to mention homelessness. But endless open season on wildlife is definitely not the answer.