

Robert Miller
Falmouth
LD 2188

Maine milk farmers are one link in providing food security for our state and region in the face of climate or supply chain disruptions. Also these farms keep keep our agricultural land base in farming and safeguarded from conversion to non-agricultural uses. I would like to add that for the Tier Program to effectively support Maine dairy farms, it must be informed by current realities and data.