

Anna Fiedler
Edgecomb
LD 2212

I urge you to consider supporting the Act to Strengthen Maine's Agriculture, Food System and Forest Products Infrastructure Investment. Farming and forest products are two critical business sectors in Maine and they fit into our state's traditional economy. Access to Maine grown food has potential to sustain Mainers and those across New England in the event of broader supply chain disruptions. However, these key economic drivers in Maine can only be sustained if there are funds to invest in the infrastructure that supports them.