LD: 58 An Act To Improve Information Sharing by Criminal Justice Agencies with Government Agencies Responsible for Investigating Child or Adult Abuse

Summary

This bill amends Title 16, chapter 9, the Intelligence and Investigative Record Information Act. The Act designates intelligence and investigative record information (investigative information) held by a criminal justice agency as confidential and controls its release.

Title 16, section 806, subsection 1 allows a criminal justice agency to release investigative information that concerns the investigation of suspected abuse, neglect or exploitation of children or incapacitated or dependent adults to a government agency that licenses programs for those persons (licensing agency) or to a government agency that is responsible for investigating abuse, neglect or exploitation of children and incapacitated or dependent adults (protective agency).

This bill proposes to broaden subsection 1 so that a criminal justice agency can release investigative information:

- (1) to a government licensing agency if the information concerns the investigation of suspected abuse, neglect or exploitation; and
- (2) to a government protective agency.

Testimony

  6. Dr. Landry was asked whether this bill would require an appropriation.
