

Janet Drew
York

I can't support this bill in its current form. We already have legislation around solitary confinement, but oversight, reassessment is inadequate And reporting practices do not reflect the real time people may be spending
This is a critical mental health issue we need to stop solitary confinement practice by whatever name, and I hope if we delay this bill it can be made more effective. Thank you for your work