

Gwendolyn Clark
Ellsworth

I do not support no knock warrants There is too much left to human error on the allowance of executing them. I do support the right of MAINERS to stand their ground and the Second Amendmend protection of the American citizens to self preservation and protection of their person and family anywhere.