

Matthew Schreiber
Lisbon

I would like to urge support for LD 1138. Mainers who are put in the difficult situation requiring them act immediately and instinctively to save their own or another innocent life should not have to hesitate in order to analyze if they have satisfied an arbitrary duty to flee in a situation where the potential victim has a right to be in such a place.