

Janet Drew
York

I approve all efforts to support people within their own communities. Removing individuals (who may be caregivers & breadwinners) from loved ones has not improved safety or SUD data. It has impoverished & traumatized innocent families, placing those kids, too, at risk for long-term problems.