

Janet Drew
York

This bill sounds like a political hodgepodge.

Kids need information on many topics.

All adults (& cops) should also be lifelong learners. Education is one thing.

Legislating policies and practices that truly promote mutual trust, safe communities and safe policing will require more than this