

Janet Drew
York

I support this bill. There are many people in the carcerate system with long & disparate sentences. People change, "criminal" laws change, yet current Maine law ignores all of these factors. There are people in Maine's extensive DOC system, who require hospice care, yet they are not released for humane care. This bill helps support positive change, and hope for innocent families, who who share trauma with incarcerated loved ones.