

Janet Drew
York

I support this bill & the right of all people to basic standard of medical care. Standards don't change when a person is in a physically high-risk and traumatic carcerate setting. The needs increase, and so does the need for more intervention to meet a standard of care