SUMMARY

This amendment makes the following changes to the bill.

1. It removes from the bill the provision that requires the Department of Health and Human Services to report annually on the current number and case specifics of children served by the department's Office of Child and Family Services. It instead amends an existing legislative reporting requirement by that office regarding the status of children in the department's custody to include in that report information on the number of children in the department's care and custody known to have one or more incarcerated parent and information on the number of those children for whom the case goal is reunification.

2. It amends the provisions of the bill that add additional persons to the board of visitors of each county jail to clarify that one additional person must be a person who has had prior child welfare experience with the Office of Child and Family Services.

3. It amends the provisions of the bill that establish a board of visitors for women's services in certain correctional facilities to clarify for those boards the applicability of the general requirements and responsibilities of facility boards of visitors and to clarify the membership of boards of visitors for women's services. It also amends the general requirements for correctional facility boards of visitors to increase the membership from 5 to 7 members and to clarify the background of those two additional members.

4. It amends the provisions of the bill regarding child visitation policies and procedures in correctional or detention facilities to specify the conditions under which such visitation may not be allowed.

5. It amends the provisions of the bill requiring a correctional or detention facility to ensure the presence of a female law enforcement officer during the transportation of a female prisoner to and from medical appointments by providing that a correctional or detention facility shall ensure that presence to the greatest extent possible. It also requires each correctional or detention facility to adopt a written policy regarding the transportation of prisoners to medical appointments and procedures during such appointments that must provide a prisoner with the greatest amount of privacy as possible during the appointment while ensuring that proper safety protocols based on security risks are implemented. The amendment also adds similar provisions applicable to county jails.

6. It adds a new provision requiring each county sheriff, individually or through a statewide association of sheriffs, to on a voluntary basis work with the Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Child and Family Services to establish a system for the provision to the office of publicly available information regarding persons incarcerated at county jail facilities. By January 31, 2024, the office must submit a report to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over criminal justice and public safety matters regarding the progress made by the office in obtaining the information and any findings or recommendations based on the information received and the committee may report out related legislation.

7. It makes other technical changes and corrections to the bill.
