

Carol Plummer
Corinth
LD 1978

I fully support this bill and urge all legislators to do the same. The State must support the most vulnerable and do what it can to give those the tools to succeed and raise themselves up to contributing members of our State. We are a dwindling population. We need people with skills in all of our industries. Pass this bill.