

Keith Pillsbury
Naples

I hope lawmakers vote for this Act. Parents and teachers know the child best. Administrators have little to no working knowledge of the child. They naturally lean toward the cheapest possible answer and not usually the right answer. We need the people closest to the child to have a larger voice than that of the person that doesn't work with the child.

Thank you,
Keith Pillsbury