

Joyce Simpson
Whiting

This is an unnecessary piece of legislation that should an "ought not to pass" unanimous vote. Schools already determine the workload to be accomplished by students after the school hours. It should be and is utilized to reinforce classroom learning, expansion of learning, and preparation of new material. Please do not clutter up the law books with redundant legislation that will do more harm than good, and in particular to the students of Maine who are preparing to become useful adult citizens.